The Political Meetings Saturday Night.

The Theatre was literally crammed on Saturday evening to hear the speech of David Logan, Esq. We cannot make a better article for to-day than by repeating some of the points made by him on that occasion.

Recounting the history of the agitation of the slavery question since the early days of our republic, Mr. Logan saw in it the origin of the present war, and that the only cure of our political ills would be found in abolishing it.

His classification of the different kinds of Democracy was happily done; but his great success lay in condemning of the so-called Democracy out of their own mouths. From this text he reviewed the history of Gen. Jackson, who, under martial law and suspension of habeas corpus, arrested a Frenchman who had attempted to oppose his policy and hinder enlistment at New Orleans. In answer to a writ of habeas corpus issued for the Frenchman's release, by Judge Hall of the Louisiana Courts, Gen. Jackson sent down a file of soldiers and arrested the Judge, and kept the two in confinement until he heard that peace was declared. This conduct of Gen. Jackson—equal to any of the so-called usurpations of Mr. Lincoln—was endorsed by the Democratic party. The Judge, when released from confinement, fined the General $1,000 for contempt of Court, which, after ten years' struggle, was refunded to Jackson by act of Congress, and was delayed so long, because the Whigs would only pass it with the qualification that while they believed it just to repay it, they thought that the position taken by Jackson was wrong; but after some ten years the Democracy, under the lead of Stephen A. Douglas, succeeded in endorsing the act and refunding the money, much to the pleasure and gratification of the hero of the Hermitage, himself.

The great howl that goes up from the Democratic ranks is, that Lincoln is a usurper and an abolitionist. If the first charge is true, he is fortunate in having Democratic precedent—in days when Democracy was honorable in its precedents, and respectable in itself—in his favor; and if the latter is true, he at least has the majority of the American people with him, which is much better than to be supported by the present effete, degenerated and demoralized article yclept "democracy."

While the theatre was filled with a crowd of not less than six hundred enthusiastic Union men, who were cheered by the music of the brass band, and the spirited songs of the glee club, as well as the splendid effort of Mr. Logan, the McClellan Club room was surrounded and filled by about one hundred and fifty, or perhaps at the very most, two hundred "cops."

The Democracy discovered at rather a late day that they had a "Wolf" in their fold, and last evening he was engaged in howling for McClellan. But really we will do Mr. Wolf the justice to own that his effort was said to be remarkably good for so bad a cause. We congratulate the "Cops" on having discovered some respectable talent at last.

BE AT THE THEATRE THIS EVENING.—Judge Williams has returned, and Mr. Pearne will doubtless be down by the evening boat from the Dalles.

This will be the last turn out of course, as the election comes off to-morrow, and let every body come.

We may expect great efforts from our distinguished fellow townsmen. Judge Williams has been doing noble work to the South of us, and we hear from all quarters of his successful efforts. Mr. Pearne has been through the mining region to the Eastward, and the valley of the Columbia, earning laurels everywhere, and to-night we are to have the pleasure of hearing their united efforts at the Theatre.

THE ELECTION.—We have a word of advice to give to Union men especially.

Watch the polls and let no illegal votes be cast for or against our candidates.

Let the friends of any man who is intoxicated take him away, and thereby save him mortification, and trouble to the police.

Let the city authorities take the most efficient steps to keep good order.

Vote early and quietly, and avoid all quarrel or disturbance.

BE AT THE POLLS.—Oregon is safe for the Union, but let no man fail to be at the polls in good season to-morrow. Let us make our majority large enough to correspond with the spring election, and let us increase it if we can. Let the news go abroad that Oregon is not one whit behind hand—that she is in earnest, and will remain so. Then let us work for 3,000 majority for the right men, and let us hurl back the imputations cast at us, and kill all sympathy with confederate treason by an increase of the Union majorities.

GENERAL McDOWELL'S SPEECH.—The reading of this has effected changes in the minds of some honest men, who cannot refuse to believe the candid statements of the General, and are now determined to vote for Lincoln, while one week ago they were for McClellan. Truth is omnipotent and must prevail with honest minds when it is brought home to them.

TO JUSTIN SMILLIE OR SMITHIE.—We have an anxious letter from James Smillie, of Barnet, Caledonia county, Vermont, inquiring about his son Justin, who is now about twenty-four years of age; came to California in '51, and the last that was known of him he was starting for Boise or John Day. Any information concerning him will be received by us and sent to his friends.

Why is Sheridan the Prince of Broom Rangers? Because he wakes up Early and sweeps a Longstreet.

VERDICT OF HISTORY.—We are willing to leave the [illegible] to the verdict of impartial history and [illegible] as to the result. We have abided by the Constitution. We have maintained the compromises entered into at the instance of the Southern people and Northern sympathizers, and at last when no more concessions could be extorted from us; when the Democratic party even refused to work for slavery longer, and its Northern majority under the lead of Douglas, declared itself independent of the institution, when compromise was [illegible] the gage of battle offered by them [illegible] and having gone into the conflict to win [illegible] of the slave power at the expense of civil war. Any other course would have been pusillanimous. It was the last resort [illegible] left us, and during nearly four years of [illegible] fortunes the battle has raged until at last the light is breaking in the East, and [illegible] peace with its [illegible].

There is a party whose fealty [illegible] interests [illegible] identified with the treason of the hour, and who look jealously on the prospect of peace won by Federal victories, because such victories are death to them, however indispensable they may be to the life of the Nation.

If they can defeat the Administration now, and patch up some disgraceful peace, with slavery once more, then they calculate with the aid of rebellion accorded to them at the ballot-box, to rule the nation again and divide the spoils with their Southern masters, depending upon the ancient prestige of that word Democracy to bring them present victory and insure them continued power.

Let this campaign be decided for the Union cause under the leadership of Lincoln and Johnson as it most assuredly will be—then the fate of bogus peace Democracy will be sealed, and nothing human can save it from shining in the same bright category with Benedict Arnold, their early prototype.

History will tell the tale but we will give the facts to make its verdict from.

Let every man who loves his country pause before he lends his vote to further the sordid ambition of base men.

Let his vote not neutralize the bayonet thrust of loyal men who constitute our armies in the field. Let him not help those who are opening a fire upon their rear.

"THE SOLDIERS OF THE REPUBLIC!"—HOW WILL THEY VOTE ON TUESDAY, THE EIGHTH OF NOVEMBER?—The following interesting statistics are abridged from the Independent:

A half million now confront the enemies of our nation. Probably 200,000 of these will be deprived of the right of suffrage, leaving 300,000 to exercise that right in their respective regiments. These are the estimates of Mr. H. Greeley, and the past, he says, is to a great extent, a mirror of the future. The soldiers' vote of Pennsylvania in 1861 was 11,-[illegible]51 for the Union, and 3,173 for the opposition candidate, being nearly "four to one." The late vote—1864—was not very different.

The Union vote in 1862 by the Iowa soldiers was 14,874; Democratic, 4,115, or about three and one half to one. In 1863 it was Union 17,040; Democratic 3,[illegible]04, or five to one. The Wisconsin soldiers in 1862 gave twelve to one for the Union. The soldiers of Ohio in 1863 gave eighteen Union to one Democratic vote. The Missouri soldiers, 1863, was 8,827 Radical to 777 Conservative. The soldiers of California gave Low 4,113 and Downey 140.

"The Democratic" vote is rather short of one eighth of the total, and its proportion has diminished from year to year with the progress of the struggle.

In the Presidential election before us, the soldiers of New Hampshire, Connecticut, New York, Pennsylvania, Ohio, Michigan, Wisconsin, Minnesota, Iowa, Missouri, California, and probably some other States will vote in camp or field as if they were at home and in attendance at the polls.

It is probable that the army vote, November 8th, will be: New York, 70,000; Pennsylvania, 55,000; Ohio, 50,000; Iowa, 25,000; Connecticut, 15,000; Wisconsin, 20,000; New Hampshire, 10,000; Missouri, 15,000; California 5,000; West Virginia, 10,000; Total, 275,000. Suppose only three-fourths of those votes to be given for Lincoln and Johnson, is there one of the above States—Missouri excepted—that can be carried over it for McClellan and Pendleton? Yet these States suffice to elect Mr. Lincoln. Whole number of electors, 231; needed to choose, 116. Nine of these States—omitting Missouri—give 117. Besides, we omit Vermont, Maine, Rhode Island, Michigan, Minnesota and Oregon, which are sure for the Union. Need another word be said as to the prospect?

WHAT SENATOR NESMITH SAYS.—The Senator writes, (date Oct. 2,) to a gentleman in this city, that Mr. Lincoln is sure to be elected and by a large majority.

The same gentleman says Gen. Rufus Ingalls—Chief of the Quartermaster's Department of the Army of the Potomac and strongly suspected of being friendly to McClellan—says that he has not seen any one who thinks McClellan has any show: that Pendleton and the platform are more than he can carry. Likely enough.

CHOOSING SIDES.—If any one is at a loss on which side to range himself in the present political canvass, we present below something to assist him in making a choice, namely, a list of names of prominent persons who are in favor of Lincoln's re-election, and another list of persons who are in favor of the election of McClellan and Pendleton. Any man who loves the Union and desires its maintenance and perpetuation will find it easy to select his side when he sees who it is that supports the different tickets:

For Lincoln and Johnson and the Union and the Constitution:	For McClellan and Pendleton and negotiations with armed rebels:
Ulysses S. Grant,	George W. Jones,
W. T. Sherman,	C. L. Vallandigham,
Philip Sheridan,	Alex. Long,
George G. Meade,	James W. Wall,
Joseph Hooker,	Fitz John Porter,
B. F. Butler,	Thomas H. Seymour,
Wm. S. Rosecrans,	D. W. Voorhees,
A. E. Burnside,	George N. Sanders,
N. P. Banks,	Lazarus W. Powell,
John A. Logan,	C. A. Wickliffe,
John A. Dix,	Franklin Pierce,
T. F. Meagher,	Fernando Wood,
D. E. Sickles,	Horatio Seymour,
Admiral Farragut,	S. L. M. Barlow,
Lewis Cass,	Isiah Rynders,
John E. Wool,	James Buchanan,
Edward Everett,	The London Times,
Daniel S. Dickinson,	Congressman Harris,
John Brough.	Augustus Belmont.

A DAMPENER.—The Syracuse Journal relates the following:

Recently, while a train on the [illegible] road was stopping at Cayuga bridge for refreshments, a party of blatant McClellanites went through the cars after a "straw." Meeting an old gentleman he was asked his preference for President. He named Lincoln. "But," said he, "I have five nephews in the army who each prefer McClellan." Applause from the cops followed, when one of them congratulated him on the choice of his nephews, and said: "Allow me to inquire under what General they are making targets of themselves?" Imagine their surprise when the old gentleman answered, "General Robert E. Lee."

SIGNIFICANT, BUT ALL RIGHT.—Lately, a squad of rebel prisoners was marched through Pennsylvania avenue, in Washington, on the way to their place of detention. Passing under the Lincoln and Johnson flag, they greeted it with hisses and groans, but on reaching the McClellan and Pendleton banner they stopped and gave it three hearty, enthusiastic cheers. Our "Democratic" brethren ought to have provided for letting this portion of our "present adversaries" vote at the Presidential election.

No telegraphic dispatches from the East since last Friday evening.

[illegible] CLUB.—The other evening Mr. [illegible] Governor and Mr. [illegible], the latter having been our authority [illegible] Gov. Byrnes' name [illegible] to the Irish of San Francisco. Afterwards Mr. Byrnes and several others came to the office together [illegible] Mr. B.'s assertions [illegible] that the [illegible] Irish Club of San Francisco numbered nine hundred names [illegible] the following [illegible]

The Hibernian Lincoln and Johnson Club in this city already numbers eleven hundred members, every one of whom is working to the best of his ability to influence his friends in the same cause. The influence of these loyal men has been so great that more than five thousand names are enrolled on the books of similar clubs established throughout the State. These loyal Irishmen are doing much to remove the stigma of treason which had begun to be attached to the name of their [illegible], which we trust will be entirely removed by their action on the 8th of November, when we hope and expect to find thousands of Irish voters [illegible] good sense and honesty, by voting for the Union, Lincoln and Johnson.

And this from the Sacramento Union:

Notwithstanding the inclemency of the weather last evening, the meeting of the Hibernian Union Club, at the County Court room, was attended by so many in numbers that it was impossible for all to obtain admission. The Court room and main hall of the building were jammed full, and many who were unable either to see or hear the speeches were compelled to leave. The meeting was called to order by the temporary chairman, John Foley. [illegible] A. Duffy, acting as Secretary. Addresses were delivered during the evening by J. Foley, J. McClatchy, L. H. Foote, Henry Starr, — Noonan, of San Francisco, Frank E. Taylor, — McGuirk, and J. Duffy. A committee of five, consisting of — McGuirk, J. McClatchy, J. R. Atkins, J. Ryan and Joseph Wiseman, was appointed to prepare an address to the Irish of the country and report at the next meeting. The officers of the Club were instructed to confer with the Barbecue Committee with reference to arrangements for the approaching celebration. The meeting then adjourned until half-past seven o'clock on Monday evening next.

And this from the S. F. Bulletin of the 28th of October:

A meeting of the Ninth Ward Union Club was held at the Rincon School-House last evening, at which Peter Donahue joined the club, and contributed $250 to its fund. It is said that ex-Governor Downey, who is a brother-in-law of Mr. Donahue, has also come out for Lincoln, and written a letter to that effect to a gentleman of this city.

CONDITION OF AFFAIRS IN THE REBEL ARMY IN GEORGIA.—A gentleman fresh from Atlanta, who is a native Georgian, and the owner of a large plantation near the captured city, has just reached Washington, where he has favored the press with much interesting information touching the state of affairs in the Southern armies. He says:

Day by day, desertions become more numerous. About six weeks ago two entire regiments in Hood's army, one from Alabama and the other belonging to Georgia, mutinied, declared they would serve no longer and intended to go home. They were thereupon ordered under arrest, and refusing to submit, a whole brigade was ordered up to fire on them and reduce them to submission. But the order was unheeded. Rebels though they were, they had had enough of war and bloodshed and declined to murder their disaffected comrades. There was imminent danger of the mutiny becoming general, and Gen. Hood himself was sent for to allay it. He knew better than to employ threats or force. In a speech during which the tears rolled down his weather-beaten face, he begged and implored them to return to duty. He assured them that negotiations for peace and the independence of the Confederacy were in progress between Mr. Davis and Mr. Lincoln, and would in all probability succeed; but that if Lincoln should hear of disaffection in their army the negotiations would end and the cause of the South forever lost. He further assured them that if the negotiations then pending should fail, if they would only prove true to their cause until November, the Democrats of the North were certain to elect a President of their own choice, and that the Confederacy would soon after be able to make peace on their own terms. In view of these promises he appealed to them as soldiers not to desert their Government and country, as men of principle not to return to their homes and have it an outcast to their neighbors that they had, on the eve of honorable peace, cowardly abandoned the cause for which so many of their companions had poured out their blood. His speech proved successful and the disaffected returned to their ranks and duty.—S. F. [illegible] Bulletin.

GENERAL DIX IN OHIO.—General Dix found time to make a speech six sentences long in Sandusky, Ohio, on the evening of the 26th of September, which should knock McClellanism out of any town in which politics are influenced by the opinions and example of men of honor and worth. The General had been serenaded. He came out from his room and said to the crowd:

FELLOW-CITIZENS: As I arrived late here to-night, and am engaged in public business and depart at an early hour in the morning, I know you will excuse me if I limit what I have to say to a few words.

I will say one thing, however, upon a question in which every loyal man is most deeply interested—the rebellion. It has been my conviction from the first, that there could be no peace until the rebel armies were dispersed and the leaders of the rebellion expelled from the country. [Loud cheers.] I believed that the cessation of hostilities would lead to the recognition of the Confederacy; and I need not tell you that I never could accept an armistice of which the Chicago platform is the basis. [Renewed cheering and applause.] I have faith only in a steady, unceasing, unfaltering prosecution of the war. [Great applause.] And I believe this will meet the judgment of every thinking man.

Once more thanking you for your kind expression of feeling, I bid you good night.

BOILS.

WE READ THAT ONE OF the sorest afflictions that the patient Job was called upon to bear was that of boils, and they have been found to be, from that time to the present, the most troublesome and painful of visitors. We have known instances where individuals were sure to have these eruptions break out upon them once a month at least. They show an impure state of the blood, and that a humor of some kind is lurking there, and the overplus of corruption is actually forced to the surface of the body, making its appearance in the form of Boils. Now, [illegible] at once to purify the system? Do you ask what will do this? [illegible] answer. Scovill's Blood and Liver Syrup. It is curing humors [illegible] every form, and there is not a State [illegible] the Union where it has not accomplished [illegible] the most astonishing cures. JUSTLY IRRITATED.—At present the streets of our city are intolerably steeped and heaped in mud, owing to the last rain, and yesterday many a newly and finely polished boot was immersed in blue clay, greatly to the disgust of the wearer. Such things very often occur in the absence of crossings, while making the connection from one block to another, in the hope of being able to "pick your steps" in dry places. Our surprise was raised a little however at seeing an unusually good temper terribly ruffled at the crossing of Front street opposite the Post Office yesterday. The causes of this wrath were about like this: The owner of a "good" pair of Sunday boots had prepared himself in the morning for the established Sunday promenade, and looking neat, excellent trim, good outside appearance, fine and good spirit, etc., when upon reaching Main street he encountered a team, many drivers standing head to heel, shoulders directly across the only chance for a dry shod path to the next block. In the goodness of his heart, wishing to get over safely himself, and insure the free trail for others, he took hold of the bridle-rein of the "off" horse, who was nearest to him, and attempted to back the team out of his way. But he missed his calculation. The "nigh" horse, which was on the off side, took the perceptible check for a bidding to start, and like a well trained steed, used to such [illegible], he did go, pulling the "off" horse, which was on the nigh side—and the would-be benefactor clear into the mud. Now here comes [illegible] "Curse" kept bad not loud" wake of the [illegible] hero, as he reached the nearest dry spot, for vengeance. The team and wagon passed the opposite side of the street, and there stopped, the deepest mud of the place, where it was left, the Post Office crossing he met with a similar obstruction. A train of covered wagons filed along the block in front of the Franklin Book Store, completely blockading the avenue. This was too much [illegible], and the hero determined to have that route [illegible] for pedestrians, notwithstanding he did not [illegible] cross himself. A few words were passed between citizen and driver, when it was decided to [illegible] finally close the matter up by calling in the [illegible] of the Marshal, but before the latter was [illegible] the walk had been cleared. Now, seriously speaking, this total disregard of the rights of pedestrians by teamsters, Sundays and all times, is a [illegible] of impertinence that deserves the most severe [illegible], and so long as there is a valid law to [illegible] prevent it, the officers are lacking in their duties every time they fail to enforce its provisions. The above is a literal statement of an every [illegible] occurrence.

ARRIVAL OF THE BARK INDUSTRY.—The bark Industry, of the Oregon Packet Line, arrived at her wharf in this city last evening, in tow of the steamer [illegible], Capt. Olson. The Industry sailed from San Francisco on the 13th of October, and experienced [illegible] north-west winds the entire passage; reached [illegible] mouth of the Columbia river on 28th of October [illegible] south-east winds, stood off in strong gales [illegible] W. N. W., two days, crossed Columbia [illegible] on the 31st. November 1st arrived at [illegible] shortly after the departure of the steamer [illegible]. Sailed to the mouth of the Cowlitz, and took tow with the steamer Rescue, which brought her safe to port in nine hours towing. The Industry comes well freighted, drawing [illegible] feet of water, and experienced no difficulty in passing the "bug bear" at the mouth of the Willamette, in charge of Pilot Gilman. We notice a change of officers on the Industry. Capt. Cornog [illegible], and is succeeded as Master of the vessel by former Chief Officer, Mr. S. D. Lewis. We [illegible] Capt. Lewis, and congratulate you upon [illegible] deserved promotion.

[illegible] WITH A BOLOGNA SAUSAGE.—The new [illegible] house on First street, in the old Bergman [illegible], was the scene of much consternation on [illegible] night, and the wild cries of "murder!" [illegible] of the women inmates, attracted the deputies of the Marshal, who soon made their appearance, [illegible] the originator of the row had decamped. It [illegible] that an individual pretty well filled with "40-[illegible]" had made his appearance amongst the throng [illegible] state, and was more obnoxious than [illegible] to the "ladies," when the "boss" of the establishment attempted to put him out. All this [illegible] of the entertainment the "rough" [illegible] "belted" his persecutor over the head with a [illegible] sausage, which caused the bacon, veal and [illegible] to fly in all directions, and it being mistaken for the brains of the "boss" produced the [illegible] intense excitement. When the true state of the case was known quiet was restored, and the [illegible] dance went on.

THE CITY JAIL.—The City Jail of Portland has [illegible], from necessity, become an abandoned institution. The officers of the city are often warned [illegible] the prisoner they have in tow, while on the [illegible] through the streets in night time to the prison, [illegible] "the old shebang" will not retain them until [illegible], and the result is, with such convictions [illegible] the county jail is put to use instead. For two [illegible] past every Grand Jury that have made a report on the concern, have invariably set forth its [illegible] for the keeping or safety of prisoners, and [illegible] quite time that some appropriation was made [illegible] the city for a new jail.

ASSAULT WITH A KNIFE.—A row occurred at the [illegible] house in the basement story of the building [illegible] of First and Stark streets, on Saturday night. [illegible] the melee a man known as "Shorty" [illegible] stabbed in the face, inflicting an ugly wound [illegible] below the left eye. His assailant was compelled to deliver up the weapon, by the city officers, who [illegible] arrested the belligerents and locked them [illegible] in the county jail for their appearance [illegible] before the Recorder. When it was ascertained that "Shorty" was innocent of a [illegible], and badly hurt, the officers let him go.

LOST.—We had a subscriber belonging to the Mc[illegible] Club, and who told his wife the other evening that there had been a great turn out at that [illegible] institution. Now, the Monster [illegible] accused about a hundred people of being [illegible] thereat, and the lady quoted our columns [illegible] positive lord, and her faith in our veracity being [illegible] as to become an annoyance, he stopped the [illegible]; for, said he: "I can't take a paper that [illegible] my word, can I?" We don't see as he [illegible] at least he don't; but, as the lady is [illegible], we grin and bear it.

THE ELECTION.—To-morrow is the day. There [illegible] be any amount of work suspended throughout [illegible] States to-morrow, at which time the people will [illegible] their votes to carry on this government. In Portland the programme is arranged as follows: Place of voting in the North precinct, Multnomah Engine House No. 2. Judges, A. B. Hallock, [illegible] Flanders, Wm. Cornell. Place of voting in the South precinct, County Clerk's office. Judges, [illegible] Silver, Henry Law, S. J. McCormick.

SATURDAY NIGHT.—The meeting at the Lincoln and Johnson Club Room, on Saturday night, was addressed by Mr. Beale, who made one of the [illegible] speeches of the campaign. We were not present, but hear from all quarters warm commendations of the speaker, and that this was a very interesting occasion. Things are working right in Multnomah, and the evening rallys are invariably well attended, and much enthusiasm prevails.

A MASKED BATTERY.—A man was seen late on Saturday night, carrying a Chinese transparency in the direction of the suburbs of this city, which bore upon one side the American flag, and upon the opposite an illustration of the American Eagle with E Pluribus Unum at the head. The bearer was taken for a good Union man—[illegible]—but it turned out differently, [illegible] with its patriotic insignia [illegible] arrangement.

BAD WEATHER.—The clouds are [illegible] too heavily freighted with water to pass over the range of the Cascade mountains, and having [illegible] up above our heads, upset some considerable of the moisture designed for great good in the region [illegible] of us, and wet us beautifully for [illegible] spoiling torch light processions, and other [illegible] anticipations of man.

COURTS.—The regular term of the United States District Court, M. P. Deady Justice, will convene at the court room in Starks' building, to-day. The regular term of County Court, Judge Marquam presiding, will meet at the Court House to-day.

The first effect of a bilious climate upon the human system is to produce torpor and inactivity of the Liver, thereby preventing the natural and free discharge of bile. A Chill, with the [illegible], Bilious Fever and Ague and all kindred diseases. A sallow complexion, capricious appetite, and occasional pain in the side, are often the early symptoms to warn of impending danger. The [illegible] of Dr. [illegible] is to counteract this [illegible], to promote activity of the biliary organs, and a healthy discharge of bile from the system.

Le Doyen's Sarsaparilla, Yellow Dock AND IODINE ALTERATIVE is the only remedy for invigorating a debilitated and broken-down constitution. Persons of a scrofulous habit, suffering from impure blood, nervous [illegible], liver disease, lost vitality, should give this great blood purifier a trial. All rheumatic diseases [illegible] and other affections are [illegible] cured by a steady use of this medicine. [illegible]

"A Slight Cold," Coughs.—Few are aware of the importance of checking a cough or "slight cold" in its first stage; that which in the beginning would yield to a mild remedy, if neglected, soon attacks the lungs. "Brown's Bronchial Troches" give sure and almost immediate relief. Military Officers and Soldiers should have them, as they can be carried in the pocket and taken as occasion requires.

Redington & Co., San Francisco, Agents for the Pacific Coast.

For the complete Cure of Cough, Pains in the Chest, Difficulty of Breathing, and all other Lung Diseases which tend to Consumption, you will find that Allen's Lung Balsam is the most valuable remedy yet discovered, wherever it has been introduced, cures have been made, which have astonished every one who have witnessed its effects. Oregon City, Nov. [illegible], 1864.

A good story has been told of a lisping officer in the army having been victimized by a brother officer, noted for his cool deliberation and strong nerve, and his getting square with him in the following manner: The cool soldier, a Captain, was always quizzing the lisping officer, a Lieutenant, for his nervousness.

"Well," inquired his lisping friend, "how would you do, thuppose a thell with an inch futhe thould drop itthelf into a walled angle in which you had taken thelter from a company of tharpthootherth, and where it wath thertain, if you put your nothe out, you'd get peppered?"

"How?" said the Captain, winking at the circle, "why take it cool and spit on the fuse."

The party broke up and all retired except the patrol. The next morning a number of soldiers were assembled on the parade and talking in clusters, when along came the lisping Lieutenant. Lazily opening his eyes he remarked:

"I want to try an experiment this morning, and thee how extheedingly cool you can be."

Saying this, he walked deliberately into the Captain's quarters, where a fire was burning on the hearth, and, placing in the hottest center a powder canister, instantly retreated. There was but one mode of egress from the quarters, and that was upon the parade ground, the road being built up for defence. The occupant took one look at the canister, comprehended the situation, and, in a moment, dashed at the door, but it was fastened on the outside.

"Charley, let me out, for your love of me," shouted the captain.

"Thpit on the canithter!" shouted he in return.

Not a moment was to be lost. He had first caught up a blanket to cover his egress; but now, dropping it, he raised the window and out he tumbled, sans culottes, sans everything but a very short under garment; and thus, with hair almost on end, he dashed upon a full parade ground. The shouts which hailed him called out the whole barracks to see what was the matter, and the dignified Captain pulled a sergeant in front of him to hide himself.

"Why didn't you thpit on it?" inquired the Lieutenant.

"Because there was no sharpshooters in front to stop a retreat," answered the Captain.

"All I got to thay, then, ith," said the Lieutenant, "that you might thafely have done it, for I'll thware there wath not a thingle grain of powder in it."

The Captain has never spoken of nervousness since.

A Greenback Case.

HAVING been compelled to accept of Legal Tender Notes at par since the 11th day of December, 1862, for the rent of my handsome Brick store, corner of Morrison and Front streets, I feel compelled to announce for the benefit of the public at large, that

Jacob Mayer

Leased the building of me on the 17th day of February, 1862, for a term of years, at which time there was no such currency in vogue, and it was understood the terms were CASH. Since the date above stated I have received the depreciated currency regularly under protest for the rent of the

CITY OF PARIS STORE,

Making less than two-fifths of the real amount said Mayer was to pay. He had secured the building at very advantageous rates, and even were he now to comply with his contract, and pay in COIN, would be getting the best bargain in the city. I make this statement to show the public what kind of a man he must be to take such undue advantage of the times to convert a few dollars to himself by LEGAL SWINDLING. The public can readily see what it costs to have such tenants.

Proclamation

STATE OF OREGON, EXECUTIVE DEPARTMENT,
[illegible] 1864.

Whereas, I have received a requisition from Major General Irwin McDowell, commanding the Department of the Pacific, acting under the authority of the War Department, for one regiment of Infantry, in addition to the volunteers now in the service of the United States, to aid in the enforcement of the laws, suppress insurrection and invasion, and to chastise hostile Indians in the military district;

Now, therefore, I, Addison C. Gibbs, Governor of the State of Oregon, and Commander-in-chief of the militia thereof, do hereby call upon the citizens of this State to organize themselves into companies sufficient to fill the foregoing requisition.

In witness whereof, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the seal of the State of Oregon to be affixed. Done at Salem this [illegible] day of [illegible], A. D. 1864.

ADDISON C. GIBBS,
Governor of Oregon.

Attest: SAMUEL E. MAY, Secretary of State.

The following is hereby promulgated. The plan of recruiting and organizing the above force will be as follows until further notice:

RECRUITING.

The regiment will be known as the First Infantry Oregon Volunteers. The field, staff and line officers will be commissioned by the Governor. The State will be divided into districts, according to the number of persons in each district liable to do military duty. When such district has furnished its quota of men there will be no draft in the same under this call. Each district will furnish one company.

Commissions will be issued by the Governor to company officers, conditioned that they shall recruit their respective companies and be ready to be mustered into the service, within a time hereafter to be named.

A company rendezvous will be established at some central point in each district, and, if practicable, all recruits will be retained there until the company is filled, ready to be mustered into service.

The State has provided by law for the payment of a bounty of $150 in State interest-bearing bonds, payable in gold, to each volunteer mustered into the service, in addition to the bounties authorized to be paid by the United States. (See statutes 1864, page 486.)

The wages of a soldier, in addition, are $16 per month, besides clothing, equipments, rations and allowances furnished by the United States. (See statutes 1862, page [illegible].)

ORGANIZATION.

The proper organization and strength of a regiment of infantry is as follows:

One (1) colonel, one (1) lieutenant colonel, one (1) major, one (1) adjutant (an extra lieutenant), one (1) quartermaster (an extra lieutenant), one (1) surgeon, two (2) assistant surgeons, one (1) chaplain, one (1) sergeant major, one (1) regimental quartermaster sergeant, one (1) regimental commissary sergeant and one (1) hospital steward. Ten companies form a regiment.

COMPANY OF INFANTRY.

One (1) captain, one (1) 1st lieutenant, one (1) 2d lieutenant, one (1) 1st sergeant, four (4) sergeants, eight (8) corporals, two (2) musicians, one (1) wagoner, sixty-four (64) privates, minimum, and eighty-two (82) privates maximum, besides the non-commissioned officers.

Musicians may be enlisted in each company, who will be rated, and paid as privates.

The following is the estimated

QUOTA OF MEN DUE FROM EACH COUNTY:

Jackson	54
Josephine	26
Curry	5
Douglas	50
Coos	12
Lane	64
Linn	100
Benton	41
Polk	40
Marion	98
Clackamas	49
Yamhill	46
Tillamook	3
Multnomah	122
Washington	43
Columbia	7
Clatsop	11
Wasco and Grant	[illegible]
Umatilla	55
Baker and Union	58

To the County Officers:

Other States have filled with commendable promptitude every call that has been made upon them. The people have a very natural repugnance to a draft, under which every drafted man must serve or furnish a substitute. Under it there must inevitably be some cases of severe but necessary hardship. Opportunity is now given to avoid such a draft. The men are needed promptly, and every consideration of patriotism and of State, local and personal pride requires that you commence promptly and prosecute vigorously the business of obtaining volunteers. The officers of the State feeling the most earnest desire that the entire State should avoid a draft, appeal to the patriotic citizens of your county, through you who are their officers and legal and natural representatives. As guardians of their rights and of their honor, it is incumbent upon you to respond to this appeal by earnest and successful work. Call to your aid the assistance of the active and influential citizens of the county. Let every loyal citizen of the county understand, and, if possible, induce him to realize that he has an immediate and personal interest in the success of your efforts. If necessary, call meetings in your school districts and bring the matter home to every inhabitant. Funds will be needed to pay expenses, but provided for by law. Let subscriptions be circulated in each county for that purpose, and preserve a record of the names of the donors among the archives of the county. In short, the Governor, upon whom the requisition is made, expects, and justly, that you will respond to this call upon you with an earnestness of purpose which shall insure success. Due notice of the districting of the State will be given as soon as it can be made.

LE DOYEN'S
Sarsaparilla, Yellow Dock
—AND—
IODINE ALTERATIVE
FOR THE CONSTITUTION.

Cleanse the Blood.

WITH corrupt, disordered or vitiated Blood you must be sick all over. It may burst out in pimples or sores, or in some active disease, or it may merely keep you listless, depressed and good for nothing. But you cannot have good health while your blood is impure. Sarsaparilla purges out these impurities and stimulates the organs of life into vigorous action, restoring the health and expelling disease. Hence it rapidly cures a variety of complaints which are caused by impurities of the blood, such as Scrofula or King's Evil, Tumors, Ulcers, Sores, Eruptions, Pimples, Blotches, Boils, St. Anthony's Fire, Rose or Erysipelas, Tetter or Salt Rheum, Scald Head, Ring Worm, Cancer or Cancerous Tumors, Sore eyes, Female Diseases, such as Retention, Irregularity, Suppression, Whites, Sterility, Syphilis or Venereal Diseases, Liver Complaints and Heart Diseases.

BLOOD AND LIVER.

This valuable medicine is now available to the public for the cure of

SCROFULA, CONSUMPTION, RHEUMATISM, CANCER, HEART, LIVER AND KIDNEY DISEASES; NEURALGIA, NERVOUS AFFECTIONS, DYSPEPSIA, BRONCHITIS, &c.

AS A TONIC,

Its operations are evinced by strengthening the digestive organs and increasing the appetite. In cases of Dyspepsia, Emaciation and Debility, an increased nutrition of the body is the result of the employment of Iodine. The patient recovers flesh, strength and color, hitherto pale, debilitated and feeble, he becomes full, strong and florid.

Are you sick, feeble and complaining? Are you out of order, with your system deranged and your feelings uncomfortable? These symptoms are often the prelude to serious illness. Some fit of sickness is creeping upon you, and should be averted by a timely use of the right remedy. Take Le Doyen's Sarsaparilla, and cleanse out the disordered system—purify the blood, and let the fluids move on unobstructed in health again.

AS A LITHONTRIPTIC,

It has no equal; being chemically combined with Iodine, it possesses in a high degree the power of dissolving stone in the Bladder, calculi, uretors of the kidney, preventing gravel formations and enlargements of the prostrate gland, irritation of the neck of the bladder, dropsy, etc.

ALLEN'S
LUNG BALSAM!

The Remedy for Curing

CONSUMPTION, COUGHS, COLDS, ASTHMA, CROUP,

Diseases of the Throat, Bronchitis, Pains and Oppression of the Chest or Lungs, Difficult Breathing and all the Diseases of the Pulmonary Organs.

ITS ACTION IS EXPECTORANT, ALTERATIVE, SUDORIFIC, SEDATIVE, DIAPHORETIC AND DIURETIC, which renders it one of the most valuable remedies known for curing diseases of the lungs. It excites expectoration, and causes the lungs to throw off the phlegm or mucus; CHANGES THE SECRETIONS AND PURIFIES THE BLOOD; heals the irritated parts; gives strength to the digestive organs; brings the liver to its proper action, and imparts strength to the whole system. Such is the immediate and satisfactory effect, that IT IS WARRANTED TO BREAK UP THE MOST DISTRESSING COUGH IN A FEW HOURS TIME, if not of too long standing. IT IS WARRANTED to give entire satisfaction even in the most confirmed cases of CONSUMPTION. IT IS WARRANTED NOT to produce costiveness (which is the case with most remedies) or affect the head, as it contains no Opium in any form. IT IS WARRANTED TO BE PERFECTLY HARMLESS to the most delicate child, although it is an active and powerful remedy for restoring the system. THERE IS NO REAL NECESSITY FOR SO MANY DEATHS BY CONSUMPTION, when ALLEN'S LUNG BALSAM will prevent it, if only taken in time.
